

About Us – The Making of Bhutanpilgrimage

Mr. Ugyen Dorji is the manager of Bhutanpilgrimage. As the eldest son of a Buddhist farmer family he is accustomed to taking responsibility.

He was born in the midst of the beautiful landscape of the far east of Bhutan. The highlights of his childhood were the festivals and the retelling of Bhutanese legends and mythology by his grandparents.

Seeking a wider perspective in life he left his home village in 1993.

His interest in western countries lead him becoming a tour guide for foreign guests. He has learned a great deal by listening to people of Bhutan and to foreign guests. Of course Mr. Dorji is a specialist for tours to the far east of Bhutan.

As a committed tour guide, Mr. Dorji has travelled all over Bhutan. He has lived and worked in India, Nepal and Singapore. He speaks English, Hindi and Nepalese fluently and of course Dzongkha, as well as the dialect of his native town.

He is caring and friendly with his guests. He is loved and well respected by his employees and colleagues. When needed he can assume a leading position – yet he is admired for his team spirit, his relaxed attitude and for his advice in questions of practical philosophy and life-style.

Mr Dorji loves to celebrate the festivals of his country. And he loves to learn about the festivals of the West and celebrate these as well.

He likes to make contact with his Bhutanese people and with people from all over the world.

Mr. Dorji is accustomed to ensuring smooth travel.

Dodrupchen Rinpoche is considered by many to be the greatest Dzogchen Master and Mahasiddha on earth. The love of this great master is expressed by the protection of every sentient being. In his grace he has blessed our manager and our project.

According to the traditions of Bhutan Ugyen Dorji travelled to his homeland, to Bhutanese Holy Sites and to his Lama, Dodrupchen Rinpoche in Sikkim (India), in order to receive ritual blessings for the opening of the Bhutanpilgrimage project.
